

9 Creative Ways to Connect with Your Girls Despite Self-Distancing

- 1 Create a Collaborative Spotify playlist for your girls to add their favorite worship songs.
- 2 Host a Netflix Watch Party!
- 3 Drop off some prepackaged quarantine snacks (like candy, chips, cookies) on your girls' front porches.
- 4 Leave a basket of snacks and drinks on your front porch for girls who want to get out of the house and need somewhere to drive.
- 5 Create a group chat where girls can send in their best "Handwashing Karaoke" videos. Let the girls vote on the winner!
- 6 Invite your girls to participate in weekly video hangouts via Zoom or FaceTime. You can host a Bible study, a book club, or you can just catch up!
- 7 Mail a letter or postcard to each of your girls. Encourage them in this season and provide some Scripture verses they can look up on their own.
- 8 Send "Motivation Monday" texts each week with a video of you providing some motivation and encouragement for your girls. You can read some Scripture, dance around your living room, or provide a workout routine.
- 9 Pick a girl each week and send some extra praise and encouragement her way via a phone call or text. Make her feel seen and loved in an intentional way!
